Format of play:
The Tournament will comply with the ITF Guidelines. All matches will be the best-of-three sets – the first player or Doubles team to win two sets is declared the winner of the match, with a tie break at 6/6 – one-off game held to decide the winner of a set when two players are locked at the above score. For the Men over 75, Women over 60 and all Doubles categories, the third set will be played as a SUPER TIEBREAK to 10 points.

Seeding:
Seeding will be assigned based on performances in previous editions of the Tournament

Note: Should any category receive fewer than 8 entries, a round-robin system will be used – each participant plays against all other participants – or the nearest two categories will be merged into one.

Consolation matches:
These matches will be held within the designated Singles categories and are reserved exclusively for entrants eliminated in the qualifying rounds or the first round.

Singles draw: Scheduled for release on 18 September 2025

Doubles entries are to be submitted in person by Monday, 22 September 2025, before 06:00 p.m. The categorisation will be finalised by the Tournament management at the event, depending on the number of entries.
